Second Sunday of Easter, Sunday of Divine Mercy

April 27, 2025

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name. — John 20:19-31

Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.

Reflections

The Paschal Candle

The first sound of Easter Time is the crackling of new fire. Even before the presider greets the people, the Easter flame burns to warm the hearts of believers and to fascinate our eyes, which long to behold the glory of God.

The paschal candle that leads the procession into the church at the Easter Vigil becomes a dominant symbol for the season. Tall, bright, decorative, stately, it creates the first light for the faithful and dispels the darkness that belies our sins. The paschal candle first announces the news of the resurrection, followed by the Glory to God, the Alleluia, the Gospel, the homily, and, of course, the Eucharist. All join to make the same proclamation. Christ is risen!

So big is this message that it takes fifty days to celebrate. That paschal candle burns in our churches every day during those seven weeks, proclaiming: Christ is risen, and we too may rise!

The paschal candle appears in our liturgy on two other very significant occasions: baptisms and funerals.

Whenever infants are baptized, we light the paschal candle. The resurrection of Christ foreshadows our own resurrection. Baptism incorporates us into the body of Christ and gives us a share in his resurrection. Whenever the baptismal waters are poured, the paschal candle burns bright. Parents and godparents light a baptismal candle from the paschal candle. They accept the responsibility of keeping the flame of faith alive in the heart of the newly baptized. Parents carry this candle home, where it may shine on baptismal anniversaries to symbolize the first news of the risen Christ.

We also light the paschal candle at funerals. In the midst of our grief, we call upon the symbols that enliven our faith. Several images of baptism reappear at the funeral: the sprinkling with holy water, the placing of a white pall (like a white garment) over the coffin, and the lighting of the paschal candle. Christ rose from the dead so that we too might pass from death to life. Every death reminds us of Easter. And every Easter gives us hope that death is not the end, but the passage from darkness to eternal light.

Prayer for the Pope

With the passing of Pope Francis, let us pray for the eternal repose of his soul and for the College of Cardinals as they embark on their sacred duty to elect Pope Francis' successor:

Heavenly Father, You entrusted the care of Your Church on earth to Pope Francis, and now You have called him to Yourself. We entrust his soul to Your boundless mercy. For his lifelong service, we thank You. For his care for the poor and marginalized, we thank You. For his witness to simplicity, we thank You.

In Your mercy, cleanse him of all sin. Purify him and draw him into the light of Your presence. Grant him the vision of Your Eternal Essence, into which we all long to be drawn.

Protect Your Church in this time of transition. Guide the Cardinals in their sacred duty. Grant them Wisdom and Courage, Hope and Charity, and the Faith they need to discern Your Holy Will.

Father Most Holy, our God and King, Creator of all that was, is, and is to come—You alone know the heart of the one You have chosen as the successor to Pope Francis. Reveal Your will to the College of Cardinals. Open their hearts to Your inspirations. Open our hearts to receive, with faith and obedience, the one whom You will raise up to sit on the Chair of Saint Peter.

May he be a man of deepest compassion, a man of profound faith and hope, a man whose charity shines forth, permeating the darkness of this world with the light of Christ.

You are God Most High, the God of the living and the dead, the Great I AM, the Alpha and the Omega, Eternal Being and Source of all that is.

May Your holy will be done, now and forever.
Amen. Alleluia.

Second Sunday of Easter Sunday of Divine Mercy

Written by
DISCIPLE

Acts 5:12-16 | Rev 1:9-11a, 12-13, 17-19 | Jn 20:19-31

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

On this Easter Octave, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. As Jesus revealed to the Polish nun St. Faustina Kowalska, the blood and water that gushed forth from his side during his crucifixion would become a “fountain of mercy” for all of us. In today’s first reading, we witness what happens now that the Apostles have received that mercy flowing from the foot of the cross. Motivated by the mystery of Jesus’ resurrection and ascension and emboldened by the gift of the Holy Spirit, these men are now continuing his ministry of healing. Just as the ill and possessed flocked to Christ, so now those sick in body or spirit see the power of Christ working through the Apostles. The beauty of receiving God’s mercy is that it doesn’t stop once it’s been poured into us – his mercy compels us, inspiring us to become living fountains of mercy to those we encounter.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In a somewhat confusing chronology, today’s Gospel takes place in time before the events in our first reading. So we go with the disciples back to “the evening of that first day of the week.” They have been through a lot over the past weeks. They have watched their community turn on Jesus and give him over to be brutally killed. They have walked with him through his agonizing passion and bitter death, and they have witnessed his glorious resurrection from the dead. “Overwhelming” seems too small a word. Can you imagine the weight of their experience on a physical, emotional, and spiritual level? Now, in today’s Gospel, we see them gathered together behind locked doors, shaken from the recent events, and fearing for their own lives. Somehow, mysteriously, Jesus enters the room and says, “Peace be with you.” Three times, Jesus repeats this phrase to his disciples in this reading. Untethered by space and time and in the wake of grief and glory, the Savior of the world extends himself in an intimate encounter, radically present to those who love him.

REFLECT

Throughout today’s Scriptures, we see the Lord’s relentless pursuit of the human heart. We see a God who loves us so passionately that he pours himself into us, inviting us to partake in his mission by the outpouring of his mercy and the power of his Holy Spirit. Today, pause to reflect on the mercy of God. In what areas of your life can you see God’s mercy at work? How can you be an instrument of his mercy for others?

The Boy from Milan

You may have heard of him, the sneaker-wearing, computer-loving "garner saint" of our time. But beyond the headlines and hashtags, the real story of Carlo is something deeper, something the world desperately needs to hear. Known for his deep love of God, devotion to the Eucharist, and quiet acts of charity, Carlo's life was a testament to everyday holiness.

Divine Mercy with Fr. Michael Gaitley

Renowned speaker and author Fr. Michael Gaitley tells the dramatic history of God's love and mercy as interwoven through the transformative message of St. Faustina, the miraculous appearance of Mary at Fatima, the witness of Maximilian Kolbe, and the world-changing papacy of Pope St. John Paul II.

Love and Serve

Second Sunday of Easter, Divine Mercy Sunday

Christ is risen! Alleluia! On this Second Sunday of Easter, we continue to be immersed in the radiant light of the Resurrection. The Easter season, Eastertide, lasts for fifty days, beginning on Easter Sunday and culminating on Pentecost Sunday. The first eight days of Eastertide, known as the Easter Octave, are celebrated as solemnities of the Lord. The Church regards the entire Easter Octave as "one great day," prolonging the joyous backdrop and sentiments of Easter. Speaking to the faithful on Eastertide, Pope St. John Paul II invited the Christian community to "a new and deeper experience of the risen Christ, living and active in the Church and the world." He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Pope St. John Paul II designated this Sunday as Divine Mercy Sunday. It is a day to reflect on God's boundless and incomprehensible mercy, which He gives to all who seek it. A mercy that overcomes fear, conquers sin, and offers us true peace. In today's Gospel reading, we learn that the disciples hid in a room with the door locked as they were gripped by fear after Jesus' death. Jesus entered the room and, without judging or rebuking them for their lack of faith, he reiterated the following three times: "Peace be with you!" Not merely a greeting, but He bestows on them the profound peace that comes from reconciliation with God—the recompense of His Passion, Death, and Resurrection. The disciples' fear gave way to joy, and despair turned to hope, all through the merciful presence of the Risen Lord. The Gospel narrative continues, "Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, 'We have seen the Lord.' But he said to them, 'Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail-marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe.'" — John 20:24-25.

Lest we hastily condemn Thomas for being suspicious of the news delivered by his fellow disciples, let us examine what brought him to that moment. Thomas had put all his hope in Jesus. He left his previous life and, for three years, followed Jesus throughout Galilee and Judea. He witnessed Jesus' spectacular miracles and heard Him preach that He was establishing the Kingdom of God, as one of the chosen twelve, Thomas would have an important place in it. But then, Jesus was arrested and crucified. Everything Thomas hoped for seemed to have vanished. Does he now believe the spectacular news Peter delivered to him? Peter, who denied the Lord? Surely, it all seemed too good to be true for Thomas to believe! But it was true. All that Jesus said, including his promise to rise from the dead, was true. Jesus appeared a second time when Thomas was inside with the disciples. Jesus said, "Peace be with you!" and asked Thomas to put his finger to His hands and side. Immediately, Thomas responded, "My Lord and my God!" — John 20:28.

We pray that disappointments and despairs do not dwell in us or shape our beliefs, and that this Eastertide is joyful for each of us and refreshing to our prayer life!

Go in Peace to Love and Serve the Lord.
